Would You Rent the Runway?

Wednesday, November 11, 2009 at 8:12 AM | posted by SELF Style

A new website, RentTheRunway.com has launched that allows you to actually rent...

your favorite A-list designer dresses you've drooled over! I have several weddings to go to in the near future and I have an eye on a few dresses I wouldn't mind wearing. Schedule a delivery date and VOILA! The dress arrives (in two sizes just to be safe). After your big event place the dress in a pre-paid package and back it goes, no need to dry clean, they take care of that too!

Would you rent the runway? Which designer dress would you choose?
